DEBORAH A. BATTS, United States District Judge.

On July 10, 2008, the Court received in Chambers correspondence from Corporation Counsel dated July 9, 2008.

Corporation Counsel's July 9, 2008 letter responded to Mr. Peter R. Shipman's Affirmation, which answered the Court's June 4, 2008 Order to show cause why this case should not be dismissed for failure to prosecute. On July 9, 2008, in response to the Shipman Affirmation, this Court Ordered Plaintiffs to move for default judgment within twenty days or have their claims dismissed for failure to prosecute.

However, in light of the points raised by Corporation

Counsel's July 9, 2008 letter, it is clear to the Court that Plaintiff's Motion for Default Judgment would be futile.

Accordingly, the Court hereby vacates its Order of July 9, 2008.

Instead, the Court hereby Orders that, within twenty days from the date of this Order, all named Plaintiffs either provide

Defendants with unsealing authorizations or voluntarily withdraw their claims with prejudice. Failure to comply with this Order shall result in the dismissal of this case for failure to prosecute.

Defendants shall Answer or move against the Complaint within forty five days of the date of this Order.

SO ORDERED.

Dated: New York, New York
